Nancy,

You have the dates and times correct; I will work with Eric to get you the appropriate call-in information by the end of the day today and I will work with Kent and he or I will get you the necessary slides. They are on a call right now, but I will catch them both as-soon-as they are done and move forward with the previously mentioned items.

Thanks!

Hi Joanne and Kent,

I am touching base about the webinars the next two days on a couple of things.

First, I wanted to make sure that we are on for the three times that we had set:

- Wed 6/22 930 am Eastern (830 cst)
- Thu 6/23 11 am Eastern (10 cst) and 2 Eastern (1 cst)

Second, I haven't received an invitation/link to the webinars yet. Usually, you all send me an invitation so I can click on it and get the call in information. As before, I will be going to a conference room so I'll need you to advance the slides for me.

Third, I have attached an updated presentation. It is similar to the one we used before but is in a slight different order. I have also added some frequently asked questions. I don't know if we'll be able to get through them all but at least people will have the information as a resource. Also, I've attached a 2-page fact sheet that lists the new requirements in the refillable container and repackaging regulations.

Ok, Here's what we've come up with for June:
6/22 930 am Eastern (830 cst)

6/23 11 am Eastern (10 cst) and 2 Eastern (1 cst)

We'll figure out July sometime this week or next and be in touch.

If for some reason I've misread the available dates/times, please let me know!
Thank you!

Nancy,
Could you send your schedule to me directly; it seems to have been messed up a bit when Kent sent it to me.
Thank you!
